

Are You Early Years Ready?

June 20th, Colston Hall, Bristol

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

| | |
|--|---|
| 10am Registration Coffee/Tea | |
| 10:30am Welcome | |
| Are you Early Years Ready? | Dr Susan Young and Stuart Whatmore (Tri-borough Music Hub) explore what this means, how a leading hub became EY focused and what they are planning for the future |
| Refreshments | |
| Structures and Networks | The structural strategies - how are we organising our networks? A brief overview showing commonalities. Introducing the regional leads. Chance to catch up with leads at lunchtime. |
| How Cornwall Music Service Trust has become EY ready | Cornwall Music Service Trust explains |
| Strategies for practice Part one | Nicola Burke (Music Development matters, Tri-borough Music Hub, Early Education), Jane Parker (Take Art/SoundWaves Network), Dr Jessica Pitt (SALTMusic, Magic Acorns and RCM) and Zoe Greenhalgh (Noteweavers/First Thing Music) - explore approaches to developing practice (tools, pedagogies) |
| Lunch - Eat, breathe, chat ... and funding surgeries with Youth Music and ACE | |
| Strategies for practice Part two | Nicola Burke (Music Development matters, Tri-borough Music Hub, Early Education), Jane Parker (Take Art/SoundWaves Network), Dr Jessica Pitt (SALTMusic, Magic Acorns and RCM) and Zoe Greenhalgh (Noteweavers/First Thing Music) - explore approaches to developing practice (tools, pedagogies) |
| Where shall we go now? | Opportunity to have no holds barred round table discussion led by key sector figures! |
| Research | Dr Jessica Pitt leads a Mentimeter session to explore some of the key questions as part of her RCM research investigation |
| Round up | Bridget Whyte from Music Mark |